SPEECH AT BANQUET FOLLOWED BY ARREST

Officer of County Humane Society Accused Before Horse Owners of Taking Bribe.

Frederick W. Lange, a boss truckman, of No. 44 North Moore Street, recently joined the Horse Owners Association of New York City. When called upon for a speech at the banquet following his initiation, Lange called upon for a speech at the banquet following his initiation. Lange related an incident which happened to him on July 31.

"On that day," Lange said to his fellow members, "one of my drivers was arrested by an officer of the County Humane Society for driving a horse with a sore neck. Rather than have my driver go to court and thus lose time I gave the officer a check for $5 and we called it square."

One of Mr. Lange's auditors sent a copy of the speech to the District Attorney and an investigation resulted to-day in the arrest of John Hazard of No. 210 Vest Eightleth Street, an officer for the County Humane Society. Hazard was identified by Mr. Lange as the man to whom he had given the $5 check. Hazard was arraigned before Magistrate Skimms in the Centre Street Court and held for examination.
